

LONG BRANCH RACES.

LAST DAY OF THE FIRST MEETING
AT MONMOUTH PARK.

A Fast Track—Fair Attendance and Good Time—Pride of the Village, Dauntless, Burgoon and Blak the Winners.
By Telegraph to THE REPUBLICAN.
LONG BRANCH, N. J., July 10.

This was the fourth and last day of the meeting of the Mammoth park races. The track was fair and the attendance good. The first race was for a purse of $300; for two-year-olds; three quarters of a mile. There were only three starters, and the betting was very light. Pride of the Village selling four to one over the field, composed of Arragance and Eliza Adams. Pride of the Village won by six lengths, with Arragance second, a like distance ahead of Eliza Adams. At the start Arragance led the other two trailing. At the end of the half mile, Pride of the Vil-

The second race was for a purse of $300; $20 to the second horse; one and one eighth miles. There were nine starters. The starters were Dauntless, Mettie, Kenney, George Lorillard's Oriole, by Kentucky; Catacary, Waco, Chamois, Love Chase and Problem. Dauntless and Mettie sold favorites.

The race was won by Dauntless by three lengths. Chamois second, a neck before Kenney third. Problem led at the start, with Chamois second; the rest well on at the first

The second race was for a purse of $300; $30 to the second horse; one and one eighth miles. There were nine starters. The starters were Dauntless, Mettle, Kenney, George Lorrill's Oriole, by Kenton, and Chamois, Love Chase and Problem. Dauntless and Mettle sold favorites.

The race was won by Dauntless by three lengths, Chamois second, a neck before Kenney third. Problem led at the start, with Chamois second; the rest well up at the first jump. Oriole got the lead at the second jump and Chamois still leading. Passing to the half mile Dauntless began closing up, and running in the home stretch the easily left the others, and galloped home first. Time, 2:03 1/2.

The third race was for a purse of $300; for second horse one eighth allowance; mile heats. The betting was spirited, at $250 $250 on Romney; $150, $250, $250 to Burgoon, and $100 on each of the others. The race was won by the judiciously picked Breeze to start. He

The first heat was won by Romney by a length, Egypt second, ten lengths before Burgeo. Time, 1:48. Braemer fourth.

The second heat was won by Burgeo, three lengths before Romney, Egypt distanced. Braemer was drawn after the first heat. Time, 1:47.

On the third heat the betting was two to one on Burgeo. Burgeo took the lead, and was

The first heat was won by Romney by a length, Egypt second, ten lengths before Burgess. Time, 1:47.
The second heat was won by Burgess, three lengths before Romney, Egypt distanced. However was drawn after the first heat. Time, 1:47.
On the third heat the betting was two to one on Burgess. Burgess took the lead, and was never headed and won by a length. Time, 1:49.
The last was a heat race over four hurdles. There were four starters, Risk, Derby, Comet, and The Wreath. The first heat was won by Risk, six lengths before The Wreath second, Derby third. Comet threw his rider after passing the first jump, his saddle-girth breaking. The winner won easily. Time, 1:55.

The first heat was won by Romney by a length, Egypt second, ten lengths before Burgess. Time, 1:47.
The second heat was won by Burgess, three lengths before Romney, Egypt distanced. However was drawn after the first heat. Time, 1:47.
On the third heat the betting was two to one on Burgess. Burgess took the lead, and was never headed and won by a length. Time, 1:49.
The last was a heat race over four hurdles. There were four starters, Risk, Derby, Comet, and The Wreath. The first heat was won by Risk, six lengths before The Wreath second, Derby third. Comet threw his rider after passing the first jump, his saddle-girth breaking. The winner won easily. Time, 1:55.

was not sold in the pools.

The first heat was won by Romney by a length, Egypt second, ten lengths before Bursar, and Braemar fourth.

The second heat was won by Burgoz, three lengths before Romney, Egypt distanced. Braemar was drawn after the first heat. Time, 1:47.

On the third heat the betting was two to one on Burgoz. Burgoz took the lead, and was never headed, and won by a length. Time, 1:49.

The last was a heat race over four hurdles. There were four starters, Risk, Derby, Coronet, and The Weasel. The first heat was won by Risk by six lengths, The Weasel second, Derby third. Coronet threw his rider after passing the first jump, his saddle-girth breaking. The winner, Risk, time, 1:56.

Hyland, the rider of Coronet, was not seriously injured. Coronet was last when the accident occurred.

The start for the second heat Risk was favorite, at two to one over the field. Risk won the second heat and race by two lengths ahead of Derby, The Weasel third. Risk was never headed, but Derby fought very hard to the end. Time, 1:54.

HAMPTON ON HIS WAY HOME.

His Reception at Salem, Va.—Speech to the Citizens.

SALEM, Va., July 10.
Gov. Hampton reached here at noon to-day, and is a guest at the Lake Spring Hotel, where his daughter, brother, sisters and other members of the family are sojourning. At 8 a. m. a large concourse of citizens with the colors balled on the Governor, many of whom were introduced. After this ceremony he was formally introduced to the large audience by Judge Griffin, of Salem.
In response, the Governor made a brief address, in which he recognized this demonstration as a compliment paid by Virginians to South Carolina, and expressed his high appreciation of the bond of sympathy which has ever existed between the Old Dominion and the Palmetto State. He would bear back to his State these greetings as a recognition of the peaceful victory achieved in Carolina. He expressed infinite regret that feeble health would not permit him to give expression to the swelling emotion prompted by this hearty

Gov. Hampton has accepted an invitation to visit Roanoke College to-morrow, and drive in the picturesque country surrounding Salem.

COLOGNE, July 10.—Ex-President Grant left to-day, proceeding up the Rhine. He will be received in Frankfurt to-morrow night by a committee headed by the American consul, and on Thursday a dinner will be given in his honor.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., July 10.—Exposition hall contained the largest number of persons ever assembled to witness any amusement in this city. The Baugerfest is a complete success, financially and musically considered. Five thousand persons compose the audience to-night. The chorus consists of 600 voices and the orchestra of 90 pieces.

Murder in Virginia.
RICHMOND, Va., July 10.—James Traylor, a white man, aged fifty-four years, was killed on Saturday in Prince George's country by a negro.

two had some altercation. In the course of which Taylor struck the negro with a stick. The negro took a brick and struck Taylor on the head, crushing his skull and causing his death. The negro was arrested.

BERLIN July 10.—At the last interview Lord Odo Russell informed Prince Bismarck that England would under no condition whatever suffer Russian occupation of Constantinople. Prince Bismarck replied that he considered the occupation of Constantinople the best way to obtain the purpose for which the war was commenced.

Pan Presbyterians.
EDINBURGH, July 10.—The Pan Presbyterian council has adopted an address to the Queen signed by three hundred and thirty-three representatives, commissioned by forty-nine Presbyterian churches in twenty-five separate countries. The voting of the address to the Queen terminated the proceedings of the council.

Pan Presbyterians.
EDINBURGH, July 10.—The Pan Presbyterian council has adopted an address to the Queen signed by three hundred and thirty-three representatives, commissioned by forty-nine Presbyterian churches in twenty-five separate countries. The voting of the address to the Queen terminated the proceedings of the council.

A Brutal Wife Beater.
ALBANY, N. Y., July 10.—Charles Porter, aged forty years, employed in McClure's drug store here, beat his wife so brutally this afternoon that her life is despaired of. He claims that a man named Wm. Starn, a stone-cutter, led his wife astray, and is the cause of the trouble.

Ten Thousand Dollars Damages.
CHICAGO, July 10.—The jury in the United States District Court to-day awarded Rev. J. A. Ray, of Buffalo, $10,000 damages against the Pennsylvania Railroad Company for injuries sustained about a year ago in a sleeping car on the Pittsburg and New York road.

Cabs for New York.
NEW YORK, July 10.—The Manhattan Cab Company have ordered from England 150 cabs, to arrive here next September, when the old cab service in the streets of New York will be established.

Smugglers Arrested.
New York, July 10.—Richard Williams, storekeeper on the steamer Greece, and Edward A. Owen, storekeeper on the steamer Spain, have been arrested for alleged complicity in the silk smuggling frauds.

O'Leary vs. Weston.
NEW YORK, July 10.—O'Leary, the pedestrian, has accepted Weston's challenge to walk six or twelve days in London in September next for £1,000.

h. PARIS, July 10.—The Radical newspaper, Le Peuple, was seized to day for accusing the Government of "monstrous" and a coup d'état.